Introduction

Railways of Nippon is a stand-alone version of Railways of the World (ROTW). Its unique board and cards are also available as an expansion for Railways of the World. Played as an expansion, you will need the pieces from the base game of Railways of the World (track and city tiles, bonds, money, empty city markers, trains and first player marker) to play Railways of Nippon.

Components

The new game board for Railways of Nippon is a map of Japan at the beginning of the railroad era in the late-19th century. There are new Baron cards and Operations Cards for the Railways of Nippon.

Railroad Operation cards

Starting the Game

Refer to the basic rules for the setup of this game.

For a two-player game, reduce the number of goods cubes placed in each city by one (to a minimum of one goods cube per city).

New Operation Cards

Long Distance

This card is available from the start of the game. The first player to lay up to 4 or more track segments in a single link gains 2 additional points on the income track.

Hot Spring

When a player chooses this card, they immediately play the build track action. On this build track action, they gain 1 point on the income track for each hex built on a Mountain hex.

Local Campaign

Gain three points on the income track if X city is cleared of supply cubes

Coal-fueled Engines

Pay half price (rounded up) on a single future Upgrade Engine action.

Heavy Locomotive

This card is available from the start of the game. The first player to upgrade to a Level 4 train gains 4 points on the income track.

Ending the Game

The number of empty city markers that ends the game (same mechanics as Railways of the World) depends on the number of players:

2 Players:	10 Empty City Markers
3 Players:	12 Empty City Markers
4 Players:	14 Empty City Markers
5 Players:	16 Empty City Markers
